Where We've Been — SEASON 25 In Review

AS WE REFLECT ON OUR VIRTUAL 2020-2021 SEASON we are grateful for your enduring friendship and support of the Sacramento Choral Society & Orchestra.

While the pandemic has temporarily silenced our live performances, it has not diminished our spirit or determination to return to the stage when it is deemed safe to do so. Indeed, the mantra that gives us all hope for a musical future together is Resilience. Resolve. Return.

Some highlights of our 2020-2021 season are available on our Youtube channel easily accessed via our website sacramentochoral.org. Please log on and enjoy these online events:

This was our $15,000 gift supporting our professional orchestra members.

Special Thanks to our unstoppable Board of Directors

Throughout the lengthy pandemic, our dedicated Board Members have been meeting monthly via Zoom to provide support in the background for the SCSO's return to the concert stage. We are grateful for their commitment to the SCSO and our Community.

What's Ahead — SEASON 26

WHILE LAST YEAR'S SCSO SILVER ANNIVERSARY was a Virtual Season, we hope that this year will be different as we patiently await the day when we can safely reconnect and perform live music. Until that day, some of this season's highlights are as follows:

- August 2021 – In the midst of a pandemic, to show our resilience, courage and determination, the SCSO crafted its new 2021-2023 Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) with its professional orchestra – American Federation of Musicians, Local 12.
- September 2021 – New Commission! SCSO Conductor Donald Kendrick worked closely with Dr. Scott Perkins, Composer and Head of Music Theory and Composition at Sacramento State School of Music to commission a new choral orchestral work to be premiered at our December 2021 Home for the Holidays concert.

Sadly that performance has been cancelled due to the pandemic, but Perkins' new piece, based on inspiring text by Thomas Troeger, and entitled Our Saviour's Cries Were Heard promises to be a powerful addition to our December 2022 performance.

Dr. Scott Perkins

- December 2021 – Because our holiday show is cancelled, the SCSO will once again offer our 2019 Wells Fargo Home For The Holidays concert free on Youtube for the entire month of December. We are again honored to share the joy and magic of the season with our Make-A-Wish friends and the Grinch puppets.
- December 2021 – Wells Fargo's Santa's Kids will once again showcase the magic of our December 2019 Home for the Holidays Children's Matinée in Sacramento's iconic Memorial Auditorium.

Dr. Ryan Enright

- January 2022 – Dr. Ryan Enright, SCSO Accompanist and Organist at St. John's Lutheran Church in Sacramento, marks his 10th anniversary with the SCSO with a new video The Organ: Renaissance – Baroque celebrating the evolution and impact of the pipe organ. SCSO Bass Dr. Ted Hoehn will partner with Dr. Enright on the creation of this amazing opus.
- February 2022 – The SCSO will launch its second annual Virtual Singathon via Zoom to help the organization continue to meet monthly fixed costs and create matching funds for the Big Day of Giving on May 5, 2022.
- May 5, 2022 – Big Day of Giving - The SCSO will once again participate in this important fundraising event which offers hope and support to more than 600 nonprofits in our region.

Bye, Bye Bleachers!

Hello new SCSO Choral Risers!

The SCSO reached its mini-capital campaign goal of raising $121,000 in a record 3 days!

For 24 years, the SCSO has presented their large Chorus on stage by renting costly and uncomfortable bleachers from a local vendor that has since gone out of business.

With their plans to return to the stage in Spring 2022, the SCSO Board and its Members knew that it was finally time to invest in its future with customized choral risers that would wrap around their professional orchestra, providing an enhanced visual and acoustical environment for both the performers and audience members.

The SCSO Choral Risers Mini-Capital Campaign Goal was to raise $121,000 by early December 2021.

In 3 days, thanks to the generosity of SCSO Members and Board Members, the SCSO Team reached its $121,000 goal! Operation warp speed!

The SCSO has signed a contract with Wenger Corporation to build and deliver these custom risers, in plenty of time for their March 12 Verdi Requiem debut in the recently renovated SAFE Credit Union Performing Arts Center in downtown Sacramento.

Their investment in the new choral risers will give the SCSO a well-deserved lift and help them rise again!

This success story speaks volumes about the SCSO's ongoing resilience and dedication to our Community.

We honor the combined kindness of the following donors who made this campaign happen:

Marcy Ayanian
Marilyn & Sam Allison
Donald Kendrick
James McCormick
Rani Pettis

After 20 years of performing in the Sacramento Community Center Theater, the SCSO is both proud and excited to be making our debut in the new SAFE Credit Union Performing Arts Center. With improved acoustics and highly upgraded amenities, the new hall promises to offer a joyful and uplifting musical experience for both performers and audience members alike.

Come celebrate with us in Spring 2022 when we hope to perform together live in the new SAFE Credit Union Performing Arts Center.
